Whole School Approach to Teaching and Learning:

- ✓ High Quality Teaching and Learning – All teachers are responsible for the learning and progress of every child in their class, including those with SEND.
- ✓ An inclusive, differentiated and personalised approach to enable all learners, including those with SEN, to engage with all aspects of school life.
- ✓ Refer to Teaching and Learning Policy

Our Graduated Response for Learners:

- ✓ Continual monitoring of the quality of teaching through progress teaching.
- ✓ Identifying and tracking the progress of pupils that require support to catch up by termly Pupil Progress meetings, looking at teacher assessment and NfER summative assessments.
- ✓ Identification of pupils requiring SEN Support and initiation of the Assess, Plan, Do, Review cycle.
- ✓ Seeking support from outside agencies.
- ✓ Consideration of application for Education, Health and Care Plan.
- ✓ All pupils identified as requiring SEN Support, or with an Education, Health and Care Plan (EHCP) are on our Record of Need.

How we identify pupils that need additional or different provision:

- ✓ The use of Learning passports and ION forms so that a class teacher can document and closely monitor a pupil's needs and their progress after an intervention that has been put into place.
- ✓ Class teacher refers to SENDCO – use of referral form after trying different strategies in class through differentiation and interventions (quality first teaching)
- ✓ Ongoing curriculum assessments
- ✓ Tracking progress using data
- ✓ Use of assessment information/progress rates etc. pre/post interventions
- ✓ Use of attainment and progress data for children with SEND across the school

Parents are included in this process throughout.

Ongoing development:

We work hard to ensure that any areas of support for our learners that can be improved are identified and that strategies are put in place to make those improvements.

Our complaints procedure:

Anyone wishing to make a complaint with regard to SEND support and provision should in the first instance speak to the SENDCo or class teacher. If the concern is not resolved, the next step would be to make an appointment with the Head teacher, Mrs Helen Ward head@st-breward.cornwall.sch.uk.
