Dear Sir/Madam

Re: Consultation on Admission Arrangements from September 2023

The Trust Board of the North Cornwall Learning Trust is currently determining proposed primary school admission arrangements for September 2023. The School Admissions Code requires us to consult on the admission arrangements each time a change is proposed or at least every 7 years, so we are inviting comments on the proposed Admissions Policy.

The Trust Board wish to continue to follow the locally agreed admissions policy, the only change to the current admissions arrangements is to include the children whose parents/carers are employed at the school on a permanent basis as oversubscription criteria no 2.

The Trust Board have prepared a draft Admissions Policy, to be agreed, subject to formal consultation. The period of formal consultation opens on Friday 5th November 2021 and ends on Friday 17th December 2021. After this period the Trust Board will consider any consultation responses and determine their final admission arrangements which will then be published on our website by 28th February 2022.

A copy of the draft Admissions Policy for North Cornwall Learning Trust Schools can be obtained from the school or downloaded from the individual schools websites:

The Trust Board would welcome responses to the proposed policy from local parents/carers, local community members, relevant bodies and admission authorities. If you wish to comment on the proposed admission arrangements then please send your response in writing either by post to Admissions Consultation, NCLT c/o Sir James Smith's School, Dark Lane, Camelford, Cornwall, PL32 9UJ or by email to jknock@nclt.academy Comments should be received no later than 4pm on Friday 17th December 2021.

Yours faithfully

Phil Banks
